Knights in Action

Spring 2025

Helping an Elderly Parishioner - March 22nd through May 24th

Several groups of Knights helped an elderly parishioner by cleaning his apartment and organizing his belongings over the course of several weekends. Many thanks to Brother Michael Turner for organizing the effort.

Cinnamon Bun Sale - March 16th

Brother Larry Gniewek led the team to provide the SJTB parishioners with tasty treats. The Cinnamon Bun sales held throughout the year fund the Council various activities and causes.

Solemnity of St. Joseph - March 19th

A sung Mass was conducted in the Adoration Chapel followed by a potluck dinner and devotions to the Seven Sorrows and Joys of St. Joseph. Many thanks to Brother Michael Turner for organizing the event.

Lenten Soup Fish Fry - April 11th

A team of Knights provided fried fish as part of the final Lenten Soup meal. A special thanks to WGK John Stieb who was head cook for the event.

Roadside Cleanup - April 12th

Several Knights, led by Brother Lewis Kapell, removed trash and debris from the Council's section of Route 340.

Fight Night - May 9th

The St. Sebastian Boxing Club competed in a Fight Night at BattleGrounds Fitness that was well attended by family and friends of the fighters. Fr. Gee, who directs the club, energetically refereed the matches. Brother Joe McFadden provided the venue and publicized the event. Castiglia's donated pizzas and Rappahannock Cellars donated 12 bottles of wine to the raffle. Council #7771 helped organize the event, collected entrance fees and sold raffle tickets and food. Proceeds from the event supports the

Firewood Splitting Party - May 31st

A group of Knights split and stacked firewood for a parishioner who relies on it to heat their home.
